

Arise Citizens' Policy Project

and the BSC student chapter of Alabama Arise present a one-day conference on poverty & policy

Let Justice Roll

Putting knowledge, skills and vision to work for a fairer Alabama

WHO: Concerned citizens, civic leaders, service providers, social workers, educators, college students, people of faith

WHAT: Workshops, keynote speakers and networking opportunities on vital issues with national and state presenters

(Approval for contact hours from the Alabama Board of Social Work Examiners will be requested.)

WHEN: Thursday, February 15, 2007, 8:15 am - 3 pm

WHERE: Birmingham-Southern College

HOW: Registration fee $65 (includes lunch); special rate for groups of 5 or more; students $15. Scholarships available. Registration deadline February 2, 2007 (maximum capacity 480 participants). Watch for the brochure in January!

WHY: Because a "critical mass" of Alabamians can chart a new course for our state - Come and be a part of it!

Arise Citizens' Policy Project

(334) 832-9060

www.arisecitizens.org

Please post this on your bulletin board!